Message from the Principal

Dear candidates,

We welcome you to Bhopal Nursing College, BMHRC, Bhopal.

If you wish to grow a garden, you need a lot of water in the form of perspiration. Bhopal Nursing College is under the supervision of BMHRC, a Super-speciality Health Care Hospital, which was set up to provide health care to the victims of 1984 gas tragedy in Bhopal.

Bhopal Nursing College, BMHRC is completing 11 years of imparting health education and preparing health workers under the able guidance of expert faculty. It already has GNM and post-basic degree courses. It has produced very sparkling results and its students have qualified for some good placements in the country and abroad.

Under the able guidance of BMHRC management the college is evolving into a strong and productive unit providing health care systems and also providing the best health workers to the country.

I am hopeful that this institution will grow to promote and propagate health care systems and ideologies of Florence Nightingale, so that humanity may not suffer from the reverses of health, and world citizens may live a healthy and happy life.

Ms. Anita Nand
Principal
Bhopal Memorial Hospital & Research Centre

“Caring is a way of life”. This is the motto at Bhopal Memorial Hospital and Research Centre (BMHRC), a 357-bedded multi-specialty tertiary care centre situated at Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh. Bhopal Nursing College (BNC), the institute which started in 2003, is an integral part of this Hospital.

The hospital is a referral and tertiary care centre for lakhs of post Bhopal gas disaster patients and their first degree relatives who are first assessed at the primary care level in the eight health centres (satellite health centers) spread around the city of Bhopal, and then referred to the advanced and specialized tertiary departments at the hospital which include the following
